COMMISSIONER STEVE RADACK
INVITES YOU TO

THE ANNUAL KLEB WOODS HUMMINGBIRD FESTIVAL

SATURDAY, SEPT. 15 — 9 a.m.— 3 p.m.

Featuring as many as 100 Ruby-throated Hummingbirds!

WHO:

Hummingbird expert Sumita Prasad will be capturing and banding hummingbirds between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. In addition to seeing these feathered jewels up close, you may ask Sumita questions about their unique structure and amazing biology.

WHO ELSE:

Author Gary Clark is a professor at Lone Star College-North Harris and author of Nature, a weekly newspaper column. At 11 a.m., he will present Tropical Hummingbirds — a program that includes our Ruby-throated Hummingbird. The program is illustrated with photos taken by his wife, Kathy Adams Clark, a professional photographer.

AND:

Houston Audubon Society Education Director Mary Ann Weber will display live owls. She will field questions and show her owls from 10 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. At 2 p.m., she will present Silent Hunters — a program that will give everyone a chance to meet an Eastern Screech Owl, Barred Owl and Great Horned Owl.

ALSO:

At 10 a.m., Kleb Woods naturalist Kendra Kocab will present All You Ever Wanted to Know About Hummingbirds. She will also start you down the path to identifying and documenting what you see as you observe these wonderful birds.

WHAT: Everything you want to know about hummingbirds — identifying, attracting and gardening for hummingbirds. There will be games and activities for the whole family. The Kleb house will be open for tours and blacksmiths will be demonstrating in the barn.

WHERE: Kleb Woods Nature Center, 20303 Draper Rd. at Mueschke Rd., Tomball
