

Refreshments

Door
Prizes

Does race matter?

Attend a TOWN HALL MEETING to discuss the impact of race on the number of children in foster care and what is being done to address this issue.

Thursday August 19, 2010

6:30 pm - 8:30 pm

Sunnyside

Multi-Service Center

4605 Wilmington St.

Panel Guests Include:

Shondra Rogers-McGary & Josephine Robinson
Texas Department of Family Protective Services (DFPS)

Kenneth Thompson – Fatherhood Specialist, DFPS

Other guests will include: Adoptive Parents and families that have been involved with CPS

For more information, please contact Shondra Rogers-McGary, Disproportionality Specialist
713-696-5153 or Shondra.rogers@dfps.state.tx.us

Hosted by: The Houston Disproportionality Advisory Committee

Reducing disproportionality and outcome disparities;

Guiding information and sharing in the leadership of the work to address disproportionality in Houston.

Sponsored by: The Joint City/County Commission on Children

