Citation: [Identification of Item], Houston Street Scenes Photograph Collection, Harris County Archives, Houston, Texas.

Agency History:

This is an orphan collection with no provenance. It was likely used for a lecture concerning annexation and zoning in urban areas.

Collection Summary:

Sixty-five color slide transparencies document properties in Houston in May and June 1967 with the East End comprising the bulk of the collection. Also included are several maps of Houston and unidentified properties.

Archivist's Note:

Wallace Saage of the Heritage Society received the slides from Susan Beamer of the Washington State Archives, Eastern Division in approximately 2010. He gave the slides to the Harris County Archives in 2014. There is no record of this collection at the Washington State Archives and no provenance.
