

Steve Radack, Commissioner

Harris County Precinct 3

PRECINCT THREE THIRD QUARTER REPORT 2014

Harris County Precinct Three Commissioner Steve Radack, dedicated volunteers and staff are preparing for the annual fall schedule of events aimed at park patrons, bird and history enthusiasts and lovers of Halloween sweets and treats.

Big event for some little birds

Commissioner Radack's annual Kleb Woods Hummingbird Festival will be Saturday, Sept. 13th at the Kleb Woods Nature Center, 20303 Draper Road at Mueschke Road in Tomball. The event will be from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m.

The event, organized by staff and volunteers, will feature various hummingbird experts. They will be capturing and banding the small birds and giving patrons a chance to learn more about the unique creatures. There will also be other programs and events at the family-friendly festival.

Admission is free. Patrons are encouraged to bring their own drinks and snacks. None will be sold at the event. For more information, call (281) 357-5324 or email klebwoods@hctx.net.

“Digging Old Stuff” at Kleb Woods Nature Center

The staff at the Kleb Wood Nature Center is also preparing to host the annual “Digging Old Stuff” program to celebrate early Texas culture. The program will be Oct. 25th from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m.

Visitors will get the chance to make corn husk dolls, see spinning and weaving, wood carving and noodle-making. They will get the chance to forge a keepsake with blacksmiths and use plant dyes to make a scarf. There will also be bluegrass music, other historical crafts, candle-making, cotton-combing, woodworking and the use of old-fashioned hand tools. The 1896 Kleb Woods Nature Center will also be open during the event.

Admission is free. Patrons are encouraged to bring their own refreshments. Drinks and snacks will not be sold. For more information, call (281) 357-5324 or email klebwoods@hctx.net.

Annual Halloween Safe Night in Precinct Three

Commissioner Radack will again offer his popular annual Halloween Safe Night at the Precinct Three Westside Service Center, 16635 Clay Road, on Oct. 31st from 6 p.m. until 8 p.m. There will be candy, games, prizes, popcorn and a costume contest for children at 7 p.m. For more information, call (281) 463-6300.

Commissioner to host October blood drive

Commissioner Radack and the Gulf Coast Regional Blood Center will conduct a blood drive at the Bear Creek Community Center, 3055 Bear Creek Drive, on Oct. 10th from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m. The event is open to the public. Donors are urged to participate. Please call (713) 266-8193 for more information or to schedule an appointment.

New community center to open doors

The 21,000-square-foot Richard & Meg Weekley Community Center, 8440 Greenhouse Road, is expected to open to the public by Oct. 20th. A park complex featuring walking trails, outdoor exercise and playground equipment and other amenities will be located on land adjacent to the new center.

The center was named for real estate developer and community leader Richard Weekley and his wife. It will be the seventh such facility operated by Commissioner Radack in Precinct Three. Like the other such centers, it will offer recreational classes and education opportunities for youth, adults and seniors. There will be space for community meetings for homeowners, various groups and non-profit organizations.

Anyone with questions about the center, can call Precinct Three at (713) 266-8193.

Construction reports and staying informed

Updates on Precinct Three road and construction projects previously featured in this report can now be seen on Commissioner Radack's website at www.pct3.hctx.net. That data will be updated monthly since this report is now generated quarterly.

As always, Precinct Three encourages comments and questions. You can mail them to Commissioner Radack's office at 1001 Preston, 9th Floor, Houston, Texas 77002 or email us at pct3@hctx.net.