

issued to restrain and prevent the continuing acts and practices of Defendants (as defined in this Order) that may be violating the DTPA. DTPA § 17.47(b).

The Court FINDS from the evidence set forth in Plaintiff's Original Petition and attached exhibits that unless Defendants are immediately restrained from the acts prohibited below, Defendants will continue to commit such acts before notice can be given and a hearing can be held on Plaintiff's request for a temporary injunction. The State will suffer the following immediate and irreparable injury, loss or damage: interference with the public health, safety, peace, comfort and convenience of its citizens caused by the Defendants' sale of dangerous and illegal synthetic drugs from their retail establishments. This injury is irreparable because the sale of dangerous and illegal synthetic drugs is harmful to the public and is unlawful.

Furthermore, the Court FINDS that unless Defendants are immediately restrained there is good cause to believe (a) Defendants will dissipate funds obtained from unlawful acts or practices that may be in violation of the DTPA before a temporary injunction hearing can be held and before full trial on the merits, and (b) immediate and irreparable damage will occur to the Court's ability to grant effective final relief for consumers—including restoration of money or property acquired by means of unlawful acts or practices, rescission or reformation of contracts, restitution, refund of monies paid and disgorgement of ill-gotten monies. DTPA § 17.47(a), (b), (d). An Order freezing certain accounts and assets described herein is necessary to preserve monies and assets that may have been obtained by Defendants by unlawful acts or practices until a temporary injunction hearing and final trial can be held. DTPA § 17.47(a), (b), (d).

The Court FINDS that there is good cause to believe irreparable loss or injury would occur unless Defendants are immediately enjoined. DTPA § 17.47(a). Issuance of this Temporary Restraining Order is in the public interest.

The Court FINDS that prior notice of Plaintiffs' Original Petition and Application for Temporary Restraining Order is not required before entry of this Order because the Court finds there is good cause to believe irreparable loss or injury would occur and dissipation of assets would occur as a result of such a delay. Id.

The Court FINDS this Temporary Restraining Order may be issued without bond posted by the State. DTPA § 17.47(b).

With respect to the Plaintiffs' claims to abate a common nuisance under Chapter 125 of the Texas Civil Practice & Remedies Code, the Court FINDS Plaintiffs are likely to succeed on the merits under § 125.002 and that a temporary restraining Order is necessary to prevent the Defendants from maintaining a common nuisance. The Court further FINDS that the State is not required to post a bond in support of injunctive relief, and the State is not required to verify the allegations in support of its petition to abate the nuisance. Tex. Civ. Prac. & Rem. Code § 125.002(a); Tex. Civ. Prac. & Rem. Code § 6.002.
