Garden Faire

Mercer Arboretum & Botanic Gardens and The Mercer Society (TMS), a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization, present Garden Faire, Saturday and Sunday, September 22 and 23 from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. both days.

The Garden Faire is an outdoor fall festival for all ages. Admission is free. Stroll along wooded trails and visit with vendors offering a wide variety of lovely plants and craft items for your home. Bring the young ones to enjoy the H-E-B sponsored Kid's Korner Activity Area, where they can plant seeds, learn to grow a plant from a stem cutting, make a hat from recycled paper and many other nature projects. Enjoy face painting in the pavilion and rides around the picnic loop with Stan the Train Man (sponsored by Freebirds World Burrito, Humble Texas). Good food and tasty treats will be available. Please call 281-443-8731 for details.

Mercer Arboretum & Botanic Gardens, a Harris County Precinct 4 facility under the leadership of Commissioner R. Jack Cagle, is located at 22306 Aldine Westfield Road, one mile north of FM 1960. Harris County Precinct 4 programs serve people of all ages regardless of socioeconomic level, race, sex, religion, national origin, or physical ability. Anyone requiring special assistance to participate in any program should contact Mercer at (281) 443-8731. Information can also be found online at www.hcp4.net/merc.
